

World Worm Studios

Music Production & Composition

Composer Pasu Luk

Started his music career when he was fourteen, Pasu Luk has been composing music since then. In pursuing his profession, he studied in the Musicians Institute in Hollywood, Los Angeles, California and came in contact with vast diversities of music. With the solid foundation in music theories and guitar skills, he was not limited in traditional music composition. With his exceptionally unique sense in music production, he has developed an interested in making anomalous music instead.

After graduation, he returned to Hong Kong and started teaching guitar as well as continuing his music profession. He has played for Hong Kong artists like So Wing Hong, Jade Kwan etc. in various concerts. Currently, he is now playing in the band – "Whole Nine Yards®" , in which he could exercise his creativity by actualizing his imagination and compose distinctive pieces of work.

Pasu's recent and past projects include:

- "Sexy Zombie", for upcoming 3D movie Zomb'Asians: Thongs of the Dead
- Percussionist for The Hang Seng Bank 75th Anniversary Celebration held at Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre
- Percussionist for the Welcome Reception of the Telecom World by ITU (International Telecommunication Union, the leading United Nations agency for information and communication technologies)
- Musician for the band "Whole Nine Yards®"

Pasu can be contacted at wws@worldwormstudios.com. For details of World Worm Studios, please visit www.worldwormstudios.com.