

World Worm Studios

Music Production & Composition

Composer & Producer Scott Logan

Based out of St. Louis Missouri, Scott Logan has over twenty years of musical composing and programming experience which has been a featured point throughout his career. Scott toured over 17 Mid American States for almost ten years with a St. Louis based rock band doing shows alongside of many headliners of that era including R.E.O. Speed Wagon , Bad Company, Night Ranger to name a few. Performing at countless live venues including concert, college and festival shows, Scott has achieved a level of perfectionism that can only be obtained through experience. His job description as utility person, which includes electric and acoustic guitar, vocalist, keyboard programming and live playing, helps round out his ability to create and achieve excellence in his music. Scott continues working as an artist showcasing his talents in many venues.

With several albums of material under his belt, Scott's studio work includes radio air play , radio IDs, music for commercial and business applications, online music production, jingles, musical beds and band studio recordings. Talents include voice, guitar, dobro, mandolin, bass, keyboards and drums. Other trainings include vocal arrangements, midi programming, song writing, musical and percussion arranging, sound creation and studio engineering.

Scott's recent and past projects include:

- "Dream Girl" and "Smelly Brains: Thongs of the Dead" for upcoming 3D movie Zomb'Asians: Thongs of the Dead
- HickFinn.com promotional video
- Annual convention for the Blessing Hospital Group in Quincy, IL, USA
- Scott Logan's "When I See Christmas" Album

Scott can be contacted at wws@worldwormstudios.com. For details of World Worm Studios, please visit www.worldwormstudios.com.